

CREATIVE WRITING / RONDEDZERO

CHISHONA

1. Nyora tsamba kushamwari yako uchiitsanangurira zvakaitika pawakashanyira imwe yenzvimbo dzinoyevedza.
2. Nyora rondedzero pamusoro petsumo inoti, 'Kukurukura hunge wapotswa.'
3. Nyora tsamba kuhurumende kana rimwe ramasangano anopa rubatsiro uchikumbira chinhu chikuru chiri kushayikwa pachikoro kana munharaunda menyu.
4. Nyora rondedzero pamusoro pemutambo wakakufadza.
5. Nyora nhaurirano pakati paamai nemwana wavo ari kuda kutengerwa nyufomu itsva.
6. Nyora nyaya inobudisa pachena tsumo inoti, 'Chitsva chiri murutsoka.'
7. Nyora nhaurirano pakati pemudzidzisi nemwana wechikoro ange apedza svondo rose asingauye kuchikoro kwesvondo rose.
8. Nyora tsamba uchitsvaga basa rokuzoita pazororo raZvita.
9. Nyora tsamba kubazi rehurumende uchirizivisa nezvedambudziko rawira vanhu munharaunda maunogara.

ENGLISH

1. Write a composition describing an accident you were involved in or which you witnessed. The body of your letter should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your letter:
 - where and when it happened
 - what you were doing
 - how it happened
 - who were involved
 - death and injuries
 - help given
2. There is an outbreak of a disease in your community. Write a letter to an organisation or Ministry of Health informing him or asking for information about this unknown disease that has affected your community. Your composition should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your composition:
 - name of area affected
 - when the disease started affecting people
 - signs and symptoms of the disease
 - number of people affected and killed
 - what you need to know
 - assistance needed
3. While boarding a bus home, you lost one of your valued items. Write a composition describing the item you lost. Your composition should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your composition:
 - name of the item

- description of the item
- how you lost it
- how you value that item
- reward you offer for finding it

4. You have a sick relative in hospital. Write a letter to the sick relative who is recovering cheering him/her up. The body of your letter should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your letter:

- how you feel about him/her
- cheering words
- what you want him/her to do
- what you are going to do

5. You have bought something from a shop. You later found out that it was not working or did not fit. You went back to the shop to return it, but the shop keeper refused and ill-treated you. Write a formal letter to the manager of the shop complaining about the incident and ill-treatment. The body of your letter should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your letter:

- what you bought
- the problem with the thing you bought
- what happened on the day you returned the thing
- the ill-treatment
- what you expect to be done

6. Write a composition describing a ball game match you recently watched. Your composition should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your composition:

- type of game played
- teams that played
- venue of the match
- when the match started and ended
- outstanding players
- how you felt

7. Write a letter to your friend or relative thanking him/her for sending you something. The body of your letter should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your letter:

- the thing sent
- when you received it
- how you felt
- how other people felt about it
- how you are to use it or what you used it for

8. You need something like a borehole, clinic or school in your community. Write a letter of request to an organisation of choice asking for assistance to have what your community needs. The body of your letter should be more than 80 words in length. Use the following points and any other you may think of to write your letter:

- the thing the community
- problems you are facing without the thing
- how the thing will help the community
- when you expect the assistance